Gardena Jewish Center Holds Ground Breaking

Ground breaking ceremonies were held Sunday afternoon for the Gardena Valley Jewish Center Building, 148th St. and Gramercy Pl. with about 150 persons present.

Among those speaking and leading prayers for the project were Pastors Lowell B. McDowell of the Episcopal Church, Earl W. Isbell of Alondra Park Methodist, and Gordon W. Collier of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church. Lou Bereskin of Torrance was master of ceremonies. He called on Rabbi Moishe Amine to give the benediction.

Bringing greetings from Gardena's Mayor Adam Bolton was Councilman Robert Shelby. Bolton was unable to attend. Gardena Councilmen James Rush, Robert Finch and Harvey Chapman were introduced. Torrance Mayor Albert Isen brought well wishes. Also present were Councilmen Nick Drake and Mervin Schwab.
